

Confessions of a tape addict

Everything can be taped! If it sits still, I tape it. If I use an object every day, I tape it. Everyone knows what's mine because it's personalized. It makes the day brighter because it's colorful. It celebrates life because it's creative.

Look around at your desk right now: what can be embellished?? Just like these simple binder clips that would ordinarily clutter a desk, accessories can be turned into colorful expressions of your personality. Just add beads, tape and thread!
